Education, Eats and Enjoyment at StoryPoint Middletown

Join us for one of our upcoming events to learn about our unique living option, enhanced living.

Enhanced living is unique to StoryPoint. This living option offers the personalized care your patients need plus the residential lifestyle they are looking for. With enhanced living, StoryPoint can say yes to your patients when licensed assisted living communities may be required to say no.

You are invited to our community for either our lunch and learn or happy hour event where we'll provide further education on enhanced living and how it can be an ideal next step for those you serve.

THE POWER OF KNOWING
An educational seminar series

We are excited to be joined by one of America's leading experts on Social Security and Medicare, Mary Beth Franklin, who will discuss top strategies to maximize Social Security benefits and minimize Medicare premiums!

Making the Most of Social Security:

What you need to know

May 23 at 2 p.m. Eastern

(1 p.m. Central, 12 p.m. Mountain, 11 a.m. Pacific, 10 a.m. Alaska, 9 a.m. Hawaii)

For most retirees, Social Security is a critical piece of the retirement income puzzle, but the rules are complicated. Medicare benefits are also essential to retirement security, but high costs can catch some retirees by surprise. Learn everything you need to know to make the most of your retirement benefits!

FEATURED SPEAKER – Mary Beth Franklin, CFP®

Mary Beth Franklin is one of the country's leading experts on Social Security and Medicare. An award-winning journalist, Mary Beth writes a column on retirement issues for Investment News, a publication for financial advisors.

In her seminar, she will explain how:

- Claiming age, marital status, and earnings restrictions can affect Social Security benefit amounts.
- To apply Social Security claiming strategies to maximize benefits for some married couples and eligible divorced spouses.
- Social Security retirement and survivor benefits represent two different pots of money and may be claimed at different times.
